Chef Lubber wins Golden Maggot

Chef Lubber wins the rare Golden Maggot award for his new restaurant.

At the Maggot award ceremony, the rotund Chef, 36, commented that he was overjoyed to receive the award for his work in the restaurant business. When asked why he thought he'd got the award Lubber replied "It was the new dish that got it! Me many happy customers were flockin' in to sample me Cruncher steaks!"

This delicious new dish has raised many a outlass in the famous restaurant with fighting to gobble it from other people's tables. Chef Lubber, a former sea monster killer now turned chef, has consistently refused to give away his source for the famous Cruncher steaks. Nobody even knows what type of meat it is. "You wouldn't tell anyone the place you keep ya treasure would ya? I don't tell ye where me gets the flesh from!"

The mystery deepens further as many pirate diners have found gold doubloons and shiny diamonds in their steaks.

What Are Headlines?

Headlines are found in different forms - in print newspapers, on radio and TV news and on Internet news sites.

They are the main title of the news stories.

What's the Purpose of Headlines?

In the media industry, people say that headlines “tell and sell.”

Discuss It

What does ‘tell and sell’ mean?

Have a chat and then compare your results.

Compare It

‘tell’ = telling people what the news story is about.

‘sell’ = making people read, watch, click or listen to the news story.

What does ‘tell and sell’ mean when we talk about radio or TV news headlines?

Have a chat and then compare your results.

Compare It

To make you stay watching the news so you don’t turn over.
They act like a contents page for the programme.

Print Newspaper Headlines

Newspaper headlines need to be:

- Eye-catching
- A title for the news story
- Short and snappy

Try It

Below are 5 explanations of news stories. Your job is to write the headline for them.

1. A boy finds a stash of gold Roman coins in the local park.
2. A girl from your local area is chosen for the Team GB Gymnastic team at the 2020 Olympics.
3. A giraffe escapes from a zoo and makes it down the road into the supermarket car park.
4. 500 dogs and their owners do a 5km run and raise thousands for charity.
5. A bridge in a local town falls into the river causing chaos for the town.

Look at these newspaper headlines containing puns. Can you match the headline to the story?

Often, print newspaper headlines contain puns to catch your eye and make you read on. Puns are mainly found in tabloid newspapers.

A man, who was struck by lightning, was saved by his Marks and Spencer slippers.

Meghan Markle gives birth to baby boy Archie at 5.26 a.m.

A ban on fizzy drinks was cancelled the day before it was due to start.

Inverness Caledonian Thistles beat Celtic in a shock 3-1 Scottish Cup win.

Things to Do Next

Make your own TV, radio, print or web-style newspaper reports. (You might even want to film them and include roving reporter and interviewees/eye witnesses.)

Go through print newspapers and cut out good examples of headlines - make a collage poster for your classroom wall.

Write your own 'puntastic' headlines for others to create a news story around.

Create a class newspaper with articles from everyone in the class that include some great headlines. Why not work as a newsroom, splitting up the jobs of reporters, editor, subeditors, copy checkers, general manager, production manager and staff?

Glossary

Media Industry The world of work and business for TV, radio and newspapers.

Puns Play on words, using how words sound to swap words around to be funny or clever.

Puntastic A pun itself - a play on words for 'fantastic'.
Means: fantastic punning.

Tabloid The smaller size of newspapers. UK tabloids include The Sun, The Mirror, The Star, Daily Mail, Daily Express and Morning Star and The National and Daily Record in Scotland.

Broadsheet The larger size of newspapers. Currently, there is only one UK 'broadsheet' – the Daily Telegraph. UK broadsheets include The Times, The Telegraph, The Guardian, The Independent and The Financial Times and The Scotsman and The Herald in Scotland. They are also known as 'quality' newspapers because they deal mainly with serious issues and have high standards of dealing with the news.

I can investigate how a liquid is different to a solid.

The properties of liquids include:

- Liquids can flow or be poured easily.
- They are not easy to hold.
- Liquids change their shape depending on the container they are in.
- Even when liquids change their shape, they always take up the same amount of space. Their volume stays the same.
