I can use personification in my writing

Today we will:

- read our new book
- learn what personification is

Key words

personification

feelings

emotions

I can use personification in my writing.

These are my scissors:

I'm going to personify them.

Gracefully, the scissors danced through the paper.

Personification is where you give something, which is not human, human qualities.

I can use personification in my writing.

Choose an object from somewhere in the room to personify.

Use your imagination. How could you use human qualities to describe what the object is doing?

How are they doing it? Can you add adverbs or feelings?

I can use personification in my writing.

Can we add more detail with a subordinate clause?

Remember, subordinate clauses add more info to a sentence

Violently, the tree shook its branches as it was angry.

Since the rubber had not been used for ages, it sulked at the bottom of the tray.

The ruler, which was tall and straight, felt sad.

Unfortunately, the pencil sharper, who was rather naughty, devoured the pencil.
