Handwriting and Spelling

Write each word three times.

After each word has been written, put it into a sentence that shows its meaning.

remembrance

grievance

reliance

ignorance

attendance

Word of the Day = debatable.

What does it mean?

Does it have more than one meaning?

Which word type is it?

How do we use it?

I can prepare a headline and an orientation for my newspaper report.

Next, let's review our knowledge of the video about the lighthouse (the weblink is at the bottom of the slide).

What has happened?

Who has been affected by it?

Where did has the event occur?

When did the event occur?

How did the lighthouse keeper get the lighthouse to work?

Why did he need it to work?

What quotes can you come up from the lighthouse keeper?

<https://www.literacyshed.com/the-lighthouse.html>

Our next steps are to think of a headline and a tag line. What do you think of these?

The Lighthouse Lives.
A lighthouse works.

The Lighthouse Lives.
A lighthouse is brought back to life just in time to divert a titanic disaster.

Which is best and why?

I can prepare a headline and an orientation for my newspaper report.

Now let's work on building an orientation.

What do we need to include in our orientations?

- When.
- Where.
- Who.
- What.

Try writing an orientation for an article about the lighthouse video.

Your task...

Fill in the planner on the next slide. Make sure that you have two quotes ready for use AND ONE example of indirect speech that you can use in your newspaper report that you'll write tomorrow.

Can you prepare your paragraph openers with adverbials of time AND place?

Can you make sure that you have two examples of complex sentences with relative clauses beginning with when and where ready.

Year Six Maths

Week 6 - Algebra

Lesson 3 - I can solve two-step equations.

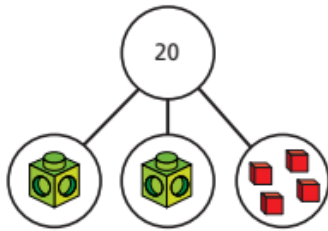

Videos to support the task can be found here.

<https://vimeo.com/503005898>

The worksheets for the lesson can be found below.

Solve two-step equations

- 1 Here is a part-whole model.

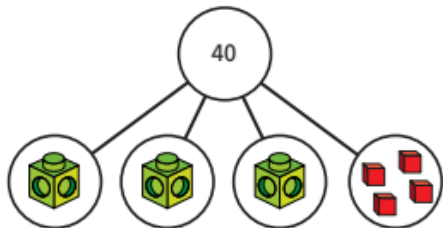

- a) Write an equation for the part-whole model.

- b) Solve the equation to work out the value of

- 2 If each multilink cube represents x , form and solve an equation to find the value x .

$x =$

- 3 There is the same number of counters under each cup.
There are 16 counters in total.

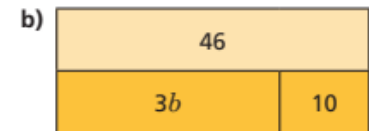

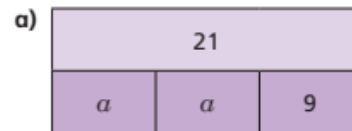

- a) Use y to represent the number of counters under each cup.
Write an equation in terms of y .

- b) Solve the equation to find the value of y .

$y =$

- c) How many counters are under each cup?

- 4 Write an algebraic equation to represent each bar model.
Find the values of a and b .

$b =$

5 Solve the equations.

a) $5x + 1 = 31$

$x =$

b) $3x - 3 = 9$

$x =$

c) $4p - 11 = 3$

$p =$

d) $9 = 2y + 8$

$y =$

e) $10g - 2 = 46$

$g =$

f) $4 + 3y = 28$

$y =$

6 Dani thinks of a number.

She doubles it and adds 3

She gets the answer 15

a) Write an equation to represent Dani's problem.

b) Solve the equation to find her number.

7 Alex is y years old.

Her friend Brett is 3 years older.

The total of their ages is 25

How old are Alex and Brett?

Alex is Brett is 8

a) Work out the cost of one banana and one orange.

I can write a discursive text about
Mayan childhood.

What were the negative points of being a Mayan child?

What sort of language would we need to use to present a discursive text about Mayan childhood and British childhood?

Remember Even Eddie?

Let's take a peek at the text again and remind ourselves of discursive writing...

I can write a discursive text about
Mayan childhood.

Look at the plan on the next slide.

Can you use your learning from last week to create a plan for a discursive text about Mayan childhood?

Use the websites below to refresh your memory if you need to...

<https://mayas.mrdonn.org/school.html>

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zq6svcw/articles/zg2htv4#:~:text=Families%20lived%20in%20great%20cities,only%20taught%20their%20parents'%20jobs.>

How can we plan our discursive text?

Title as a question

Statement introducing topic

1st positive point of
Maya childhood.

1st negative point of
Maya childhood

2nd positive point of
Maya childhood..

2nd negative point of
Maya childhood.

Conclusion referring back to introduction and summarising the points

Your task is to write a discursive text about the topic of Mayan childhood.

You should...

- Write an introduction to the topic.
- Talk about the negative side of their upbringing
- Talk about the positive sides.
- Write a conclusion where you might compare Mayan childhood to growing up in modern Britain.
