I know objects that are important to Muslims.

In Islamic teachings, it has been said that God has asked women to wear hijab in order to achieve modesty and to redirect the focus of both women and men from the materialistic world towards the more spiritual world of God.

16.3.22

I know objects that are important to Muslims.

These are prayer beads used by Muslim believers. They are called misbaha.

Misbaha can contain 99 beads. Each of these ninety-nine beads represents one of the names that Muslims give Allah and short prayers known as dhikr. There may also be three smaller beads which separate the strand into three sections of thirty-three beads. Muslims say a particular prayer while using these beads, a prayer made up of short sentences that glorify Allah. The beads help them to focus and keep a count of the prayers as they say them.

Some misbaha only have 33 larger beads and people using these will repeat the cycle of prayers three times.
