

Reception Literacy

Hello Class LB and Class KH

Here is your next book to enjoy...there is a different activity to do every day.

Do activity 1 before you watch the video!

Activity 1

Time to predict...

This is Pip. She wants to be a guide dog.

Do you think she will make a good one?

Why do you think this?

The story

Now click the link to watch the story and find out about Pip.

Activity 2

Pip made some mistakes when she was learning.

Can you write a list of all the different feelings you think Pip may have felt during the training?

Activity 3

Watch the story again with the sound off.

Can you talk about the story in your own words?

Activity 4

Can you create a story board of what happened to Pip?

Draw a picture from the beginning, middle and end of the story and write a sentence to match.

<input type="checkbox"/> _____ _____ _____	<input type="checkbox"/> _____ _____ _____	<input type="checkbox"/> _____ _____ _____

Activity 5

Imagine you found Pip at this point in the story, when she was upset because she was asked to leave the training.

What would you say to Pip?

How would you help her?

Can you make your own obstacle course? If you have a pet maybe you can guide them around it.

More ideas

Listen to the music. How does it change when Pip does well? Can you create your own for good and bad things.

What can you find out about Guide Dogs?

Make a doggy door hanger. Make sure the tail is the right shape to fit the handle and that it will balance and hang on the door.

Easy ORIGAMI Dog CRAFT

Dogs have moving TAILS and heads! Use Them as finger puppets!

Draw the same picture on two cards like these dogs! Turn them over and play a matching memory game.

You can print this game or make your own. Add your own rules and take turns to roll the dice and move.
